

OFFICIAL INTERNATIONAL
INDIGENOUS NATION TO NATION TREATY OF "COMMERCE AND TRADE"

This Official Nation to Nation "Indigenous Treaty of Commerce and Trade", hereafter referred to as the "ITCT", is now established between the sovereign "Zone 11 - Peace Nation of Polynesia" or "The Polynesian Kingdom of Atooi/ Hawaiian Kingdom" and the undersigned sovereign Tribal Nations of the Lands contemporarily referred to as the Americas and is signed by and with King Dayne Aipoalani (and his officially appointed representatives) of the Polynesian Kingdom of Atooi, and signed by the Grand or Principal Chiefs of each of the undersigned Tribal Nations.

This Nation to Nation ITCT is established in a truthful, respectful, dignified and honorable manner that promotes goodness, honesty, righteousness, equity and love in the spirit, traditions and ways that our Creator, our ancestors and our elders have always respected and continue to keep.

This ITCT is formed and the specific objectives of this ITCT are to: STRENGTHEN the special bonds of friendship and cooperation among the Parties; CREATE an expanded and secure market for the goods and services produced in their territories; ELIMINATE barriers to trade in, and facilitate the cross-border movement of, goods and services between the territories of the Parties; PROMOTE conditions of fair competition; INCREASE substantially investment opportunities in the territories of the Parties; REDUCE distortions to trade; ESTABLISH clear and mutually advantageous rules governing their trade; ENSURE a predictable commercial framework for business planning and investment; ENHANCE the competitiveness of their firms in global markets; FOSTER creativity and innovation, and promote trade in goods and services that are the subject of intellectual property rights; CREATE new employment opportunities and improve working conditions and living standards in their respective territories; PRESERVE their flexibility to safeguard the public welfare; PROMOTE sustainable development; STRENGTHEN the development and enforcement of cultural, tribal and environmental laws and regulations; PROTECT, enhance and enforce basic workers' rights; CREATE effective procedures for the implementation and application of this Agreement, for its joint administration and for the resolution of disputes; ESTABLISH a framework for further regional and multilateral cooperation to expand and enhance the benefits of this Agreement; BUILD on their respective rights and obligations under the Indigenous Treaty of Peace and Friendship ("ITPF") and the Indigenous Treaty of Health and Wellness ("ITHW"); and UNDERTAKE each of the preceding in a manner that is respectful of the traditional and cultural norms, values, beliefs and that protects the integrity of the undersigned Nations as was intended by the Creator.

All provisions of this ITCT shall serve as the framework, foundation and barometer for the establishment of future commerce and trade related treaties, agreements, collaborations and partnerships between the undersigned sovereign Nations and will be conducted not only in a manner and spirit of perpetual truth, honesty and righteousness that seeks to and does serve the mutual interest and benefit of all the undersigned sovereign Nations, but also to ensure integrity and transparency through the utilization of appropriate current and future technologies and technological advances, so that our Creator, our good spirits and our dearly departed ancestors will honor and respect this agreement and covenant.

1. This ITCT does acknowledge, respect, uphold and honor the spirit, intent and provisions of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP), the United Nations Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, the American Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous People (ADRIP) of the Organization of American States, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, and all commercial rights recognized in binding international instruments (both present and future).
2. This ITCT does acknowledge the rights of the undersigned sovereign Nations to pursue the best opportunities and attain the highest standards of commerce and trade in a culturally appropriate manner, and takes into account the traditional practices and norms and individual customs and laws of the undersigned sovereign Nations.

3. This ITCT does embrace current and future lawfully and equitably appropriate commerce and trade related programs, policies and initiatives that shall be established and is subject to the "free, prior and informed consent" of each of the undersigned sovereign Nations.
4. Each Party to this ITCT shall seek to enhance the fulfillment of the objectives of this ITCT and shall consult with the other Parties from time to time about the effectiveness of measures undertaken by each Party;
5. Each Party to this ITCT does recognize the importance of cooperation and coordination among their authorities to further effective competition law enforcement. The Parties shall cooperate on issues of competition law enforcement policy, including mutual legal assistance, notification, consultation and exchange of information relating to the enforcement of competition laws and policies;
6. Each Party to this ITCT shall interpret and apply the provisions of this ITCT in the light of the objectives previously detailed and in accordance with applicable rules of international law;
7. Each Party to this ITCT does affirm their existing rights and obligations with respect to each other under the ITPF, ITHW and any other agreements to which the the undersigned Nations are party;
8. Each Party to this ITCT shall ensure that all necessary measures are taken in order to give effect to the provisions of this ITCT, including their observance, except as otherwise provided in this ITCT;
9. No Party to this ITCT may have recourse to dispute settlement under this ITCT for any matter arising under this ITCT;

10. No Party to this ITCT may enter a reservation in respect of any provision of this ITCT without the written consent of the other Parties;
11. Nothing in this ITCT shall be construed to require any Party to furnish or allow access to any information the disclosure of which it determines to be contrary to its essential security interests. Nor shall this ITCT be construed to prevent any Party from taking any actions that it considers necessary for the protection of its essential security interests;
12. Nothing in this ITCT shall apply to taxation measures. Neither shall anything in this ITCT affect the rights and obligations of any Party under any tax convention. In the event of any inconsistency between this ITCT and any such convention, that convention shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency;
13. Nothing in this ITCT shall be construed to prevent a Party from adopting or maintaining measures that restrict transfers where the Party experiences serious balance of payments difficulties, or the threat thereof. However a Party may adopt or maintain a measure that gives priority to services that are essential to its economic program, provided that a Party may not impose a measure for the purpose of protecting a specific industry or sector;
14. Nothing in this ITCT shall be construed to require a Party to furnish or allow access to information the disclosure of which would impede law enforcement or would be contrary to the Party's law protecting personal privacy or the financial affairs and accounts of individual customers of financial institutions;
15. Nothing in this ITCT shall be construed to prevent a Party from designating a monopoly. Where a Party intends to designate a monopoly and the designation may affect the interests of persons of another Party, the Party shall: (a) wherever possible, provide prior written notification to the other Party of the designation; and (b) endeavor to introduce at the time of the designation such conditions on the operation of the monopoly as will minimize or eliminate any nullification or impairment of benefits;

16. Nothing in this ITCT shall be construed to prevent a Party from maintaining or establishing a state enterprise;
17. All Annexes, Appendices, and footnotes to this ITCT do and shall constitute an integral part of this Agreement;
18. The Parties to this ITCT may agree in writing on any amendment of or to this ITCT. When so agreed, and approved in accordance with the legal requirements of each Party, an amendment shall constitute an integral part of this ITCT and shall enter into force on such date as the Parties may agree;
19. If any provision of the ITPF or ITHW that the Parties have incorporated into this ITCT is amended, the Parties shall consult with a view to amending the relevant provision of this ITCT, as appropriate;
20. In the event of any inconsistency between this ITCT and such other commercial or trade related agreements, this ITCT shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency, except as otherwise provided in this ITCT;

Upon confirmation of this ITCT, the Parties shall immediately establish a working committee to research, identify and develop appropriate policies and provisions to be amended to this ITCT, which shall be related, but not limited, to anticompetitive business conduct, monopolies, state enterprise, essential security interests, taxation measures, tax conventions, disclosure, competition law enforcement, trade in goods, technical barriers to trade, government procurement, investment, services and related matters, intellectual property, administrative and institutional provisions, and any other subject matter or advancements that is deemed necessary and appropriate for achieving the objectives previously expressed in this ITCT.

This ITCT shall enter into force 60 days after the date on which the Parties exchange written notifications certifying that they have completed their respective legal requirements or on such other date as the Parties may agree.

May The Creator bless and approve of this ITCT and may each of the undersigned sovereign Nations share, uphold and protect this ITCT with and for one another in an equitable, righteous, respectful and honorable manner and spirit for as long as the sun does rise and the rivers and the oceans do exist.

For the benefit and in the interest of all of the undersigned sovereign Nations is this "Indigenous Treaty of Commerce and Trade" signed this 6 day, of the November the month, of the 2021 year, of the Gregorian Calendar, in the ancestral lands of Algonquin contemporarily referred to as Alderville Anishnawbe Territory.
